TRAVEL TRIVIA:

17. In what country did Halloween originate? Answer: Ireland. Halloween originated from a Celtic festival celebrating the New Year on November 1. Traditions were to light bonfires and wear costumes to ward off ghosts.
18. What vegetables were used as Jack-o'-Lanterns before pumpkins? Answer: Turnips and potatoes. Halloween originated in Ireland and turnips and potatoes were originally carved celebrating the legend of Stingy Jack who played tricks on the Devil. Pumpkins were carved in place of turnips and vegetables when Irish immigrants moved to America.
19. The Tootsie Roll has stood the test of time on Halloween. In what year was the Tootsie Roll created? Answer: 1907! The Tootsie Roll was patented in 1907 for its unique texture and started being sold commercially in 1908. The Tootsie Roll was the first individually wrapped penny candy in America and was created by Leo Hirshfield from New York. Hirshfield immigrated from Austria and his father was a candy maker in Austria. He named the candy after his daughter Clara who's nickname was "Tootsie."
20. In what city and state is it illegal to have silly-string on Halloween night? Answer: Los Angeles, California. Starting in 2004 in the Hollywood area, silly-string is banned from Halloween night. If you're seen with silly string or selling it, you can be fined $1,000.
21. Bonus question! Be careful what you dress up as! In what state is it illegal to dress up as a nun, priest, or rabbi on Halloween night? Answer: Alabama. In Alabama law, it forbids anyone from dressing up as any religious leader like a priest, nun, or rabbi. If you're caught dressing up as one, you could receive a $500 fine or go to jail with a maximum sentence of one year. The law started in 1965.
